

What makes a dog, a dog?

(Boys)

Dr. Tal Croitoru

A digital illustration of a sunlit forest path. The scene is bathed in warm, golden light, likely from a low sun. Tall, slender grasses with feathery seed heads frame the path on both sides. The path itself is a narrow, winding stream of light, leading the eye into the distance. In the background, dark, silhouetted trees and rolling hills are visible under a hazy sky. Numerous small, glowing particles or dust motes are scattered throughout the air, adding to the ethereal and magical atmosphere of the scene.

And some dogs
are long

Some dogs

And other dogs

There are so many ways to be a dog and they are all great!

A dog does not need to look or behave
a certain way in order to be a dog.
If it was born a dog, then it is a dog.
And that is great!

Each and every dog is special as it is,
and doesn't need to change a thing to be a dog. It is wonderful that dogs can be so different!

This is true
for boys too!

There are boys
who wear their hair short

And boys
who grow their hair long

There are boys
who love
the color blue

And there are boys
who love
the color pink

A young boy with light brown, wavy hair and blue eyes is sitting in a field of tall, golden grass. He is wearing a grey zip-up hoodie and matching grey pants. He is smiling and looking slightly to his right. The background is a soft, out-of-focus sunset with warm golden light and many small, glowing bokeh spots. The text "There are boys who like to wear sporty tracksuits" is written in white on the left side of the image.

And there are some boys who like to try on dresses for fun

There are boys who love to play with cars

A young boy with dark, wavy hair is sitting cross-legged in a field at night. He is wearing a light-colored shirt and a dark vest. He is looking down at a small doll he is holding in his hands. The doll is a girl with blonde hair, wearing a white dress. The scene is illuminated by a warm, golden light, possibly from a fire or a lantern, creating a magical atmosphere. There are many glowing, circular lights floating in the air, and some petals or leaves are falling around the boy and the doll. The background shows the silhouettes of trees and a dark sky.

And there are boys
who love to play
with dolls

There are boys
who like to dance

And there are boys
who love
to play football

An artistic illustration of two young boys in a forest. The boy on the left is standing still, looking directly at the viewer with a gentle smile. He has dark, wavy hair and is wearing a light-colored shirt, a dark neckerchief, and a backpack. The boy on the right is running towards the viewer with a wide, joyful laugh. He has light brown, wind-blown hair and is wearing a light-colored button-down shirt and dark pants. The forest is filled with tall, dark trees and a thick carpet of fallen yellow leaves. Sunlight filters through the canopy, creating a warm, golden glow. The overall mood is one of childhood wonder and exploration.

There are boys
who are shy

And there are playful
outgoing boys

In the same way as there are so many ways to be a dog, there are so many ways to be a boy and they are all great!

A boy does not need to look or behave
a certain way in order to be a boy.
If he was born a boy, then he is a boy.
And that is great!

Each and every boy is special as he is,
and doesn't need to change a thing to be a boy.

Nature and the human world are diverse, and that is great.
There is no right or wrong way to be a dog, and there is no right or wrong way to be a boy.
